

After 9/11/11...What?

REFORMED THEOLOGY AND THE CHURCH'S GLOBAL MISSION TODAY

October 12-14, 2011

Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

BAVINCK

SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION - CALL FOR PAPERS

Submission of Proposal:

- 500-750 word proposal for a 5000–7500 word scholarly essay on an aspect of the conference theme - such as: theological prolegomena, Christology and Islam, ecclesiology, missiology - that utilizes the theology of and contributes to the scholarship of either Herman Bavinck or Johann Herman Bavinck. All who submit proposals will receive complimentary copies of the one-volume Reformed Dogmatics (Baker) and The J.H. Bavinck Reader (Eerdmans) when released.

Prizes:

5 First place winners:

- $1,000
- Travel, lodging, meals and conference registration to the pre-conference discussion and the international conference, October 12-14, 2011, in Grand Rapids
- Presentation of paper and participation in discussion with Bavinck scholars and missiologists at pre-conference event, October 12, 2011
- Publication of paper

5 Runner-up winners:

- Lodging, meals and conference registration to the pre-conference discussion and the international conference, October 12-14, 2011
- Participation in discussion with Bavinck scholars and missiologists at pre-conference event, October 12, 2011

Procedure:

- Proposals due February 15, 2011
- Include your name, school of record, degree program, e-mail address, mailing address, and phone number
- Email to continuing.education@calvin.edu with "Bavinck Scholarship" in subject line or mail to:
Bavinck Scholarship
Office of Continuing Education, Calvin Theological Seminary
3233 Burton St. SE
Grand Rapids, MI 49546
- Proposals will be judged by an independent jury of scholars and winners will be notified by April 15, 2011
- Final papers will be due on September 15, 2011

for a list of co-sponsoring institutions visit bavinck.calvinseminary.edu

The Bavinck Institute
Calvin Theological Seminary