

After 9/11/11...What?

REFORMED THEOLOGY AND THE CHURCH'S GLOBAL MISSION TODAY

October 12-14, 2011

Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

BAVINCK

SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION - CALL FOR PAPERS

Scholarships available to students in seminaries, divinity schools, and faculties of theology outside North America

Submission of Papers:

- 2500-3500 word paper related to the conference theme that includes a significant engagement with the theology of either Herman Bavinck or J. H. Bavinck

Prizes:

5 First place winners:

- $250
- Registration (including meals) to international conference, October 12-14, 2011
- Participation in a conference session dedicated to seminary and college students
- Complimentary copies of Herman Bavinck's Reformed Dogmatics (Abridged) (Baker, 2011) and The J.H. Bavinck Reader (Eerdmans, 2011)

5 Runner-up winners:

- Registration (including meals) to international conference, October 12-14, 2011
- Participation in a conference session dedicated to seminary and college students
- Complimentary copies of Herman Bavinck's Reformed Dogmatics (Abridged) (Baker, 2011) and The J.H. Bavinck Reader (Eerdmans, 2011)

Procedure:

- Papers must be received by June 30, 2011
- Accompanied by a brief letter of recommendation from student's professor on institutional letterhead number
- Email to continuing.education@calvin.edu with "Bavinck Scholarship-Seminary" in subject line or mail to:
Bavinck Scholarship
Office of Continuing Education, Calvin Theological Seminary
3233 Burton St. SE
Grand Rapids, MI 49546
- Papers will be judged and students notified by August 30, 2011

for a list of co-sponsoring institutions visit
bavinck.calvinseminary.edu

The Bavinck Institute
Calvin Theological Seminary